WANTED CLINICAL SUPERVISORS

Counsellors for the Community | Community for the Counsellors

About Us:

ProChoices is a grassroots, social-profit, by-donation counselling clinic that offers affordable counselling to the community. The clinic is funded to date by the client donations, sponsorship and our growing practice certificate program, which provides a customized, professional development immersion, based on learner-specific objectives to advance counselling skills and Fluency in a Feminist-Narrative Therapy approach.

About You:

This is an opportunity for accredited therapists who are interested in furthering their theoretical understanding of a feminist and narrative therapy approach, while sharpening supervision skills in a peer supported experiential learning environment. Some supervision training/mentorship available.

- Expand what you know and sharpen your supervision skills.
- Customize your participation with supportive hours and development focus.
- Inspire therapists as they advance their practice.
- Support quality therapy to be available for everyone.
- Explore progressive approaches to supervision in a supportive, collective environment.

Qualifications:

Registered and insured clinical counsellors, RSW's and supervisors interested in social justice, narrative therapy, feminisms, collectivism, social profit enterprise and community development .
